

2022 June 30 White Ecology, White Mythology, Plutonium forever and other long-term anthropocene disasters for human and non-human beings (Daisy Hildyard)

"the collapse of the age-old humanist distinction between natural history and human history."

- Dipesh Chakrabarty

"how anthropogenic destruction articulates itself on a wide landscape. . . .

attunement with nonhuman silences and spaces. . . . A person might understand her position in the world not by introspection but by looking out and paying attention to the agency of other things and beings. . . .

Our effects on other beings, and the effects that other beings have on us"

- Daisy Hildyard
