

Old Li Po (lyrics)

Old Li Po was a friend of mine
Went to see in a jug of wine
Laughed and sang and had a good time
Died in the moonlight feeling fine

I don't know and I don't care
Live just like a cinnamon bear
Eat my honey and breathe sweet air
Go when I want and live anywhere

Try to remember try to forget
Never lose and never get
Live by myself alone and yet
No man alive I ain't met
