

When She's Making Love to You (lyrics)

And you know when she's making love to you
That's the way she makes love to them all
And there's nothing left for you to do
But try to be there when she calls

For love is a stranger and love is a thief
And though you think you know love
You're bound to come to grief
For love is a mirror and magnet to a man
Far far too wide to keep in a narrow band

I walk to meet you but you aren't there
I walk up front but that's all been changed
I walk out back but that's all rearranged
I talk to myself but it comes out crows and bears

For love is a stranger and love is a thief
And though you think you have love
You're bound to come to grief
For love is a freeway lane across this land
It goes on too long for any single man
