

Toys and Cheesecake

So much deja vu with a nasty twist ending,
to have our toys and cheesecake too,
without slowing down our onslaught one bit,

counting on cooked books, tax-free assets, private equities and hedged bets to manifest top shelf techfix miracles to leapfrog us over the deluge, debacle, de(con)structed defile technofixes and consumer capitalism brought on in the first place, culture after culture after culture (some dare call them civilizations) actually eating themselves out of existence.

So much deja vu with a nasty twist ending,
to have our toys and cheesecake too,

without slowing down our onslaught one bit,
counting on cooked books, tax-free assets,

to manifest top shelf techfix miracles — dei ex machinae to leapfrog us over the deluge, debacle, de(con)structed defile techfixes and consumer capitalism brought on in the first place, culture after culture (some dare call them civilizations) actually eating themselves out of existence.
